

Don't create a national standard on telemarketing phone calls unless you are going to outlaw it entirely. Leave this business to the state's. Since Indiana put the law in place we only get bothered by politicians for a few weeks. Don't take a step backward.